“ My Aunt Terri was the strongest, kindest woman I have ever known. It's hard for me to find other, more complex words to describe her, because I learned strength and kindness from her. I know that Uncle Ronnie, Adam, Jaju, Babcia, and Marsha were waiting to party with her, and that Jesus threw opened those pearly gates. I will always miss my Aunt Terri, every day, but my heart is at peace knowing she is with Jesus. Love you forever Aunt Terri!
