“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more.' (Revelation 21:4) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ Mom, Amanda, Jackie, Laura, Haley and Ally.... Be at peace knowing grandpa is in a better place now. I will be with you all every step of the way through this. I didn't know grandpa very well, but I know that he was a very loved man by so many wonderful people. My heart aches for all you girls and I just hope that my love and comfort help you in some way.

Love ya's,

Dani

“ It really saddened me to see that Tom had passed. My sympathy goes out to Jeanne and the kids. Tom was my Scoutmaster for many years and taught me a lot about life. I especially remember with fondness the struggles and laughs of building sleds for the Klondike Derby in his garage. One year it didn't snow and we ended up dragging it through the mud until it fell apart! Tom had to deal with a big group of heartbroken kids, but he did it with infinite patience and caring. He will be missed by many!

“ My Life is but a weaving

between my Lord and me;

I cannot choose the colors

He worketh steadily.

Of times He weaveth sorrow

And I, in foolish pride,

Forget He sees the upper,

And I the under side.

Not til the loom is silent

And the shuttles cease to fly,

Shall God unroll the canvas

And explain the reason why.

The dark threads are as needful

In the Weaver's skillful hand,

As the threads of gold and silver

In the pattern He has planned.

He knows, He loves, He cares,

Nothing this truth can dim.

He gives His very best to those

Who leave the choice with Him.

This poem was found in my Great Grandmothers bible and I like to share it in times like this.

Tom will be missed! I spent many a Saturday in the Duck Blind with him and Dad growing up. I will always treasure those times and others we spent together.

Dad has another fishing buddy in heaven! You are in my thoughts and prayers.
