“ I'm gonna miss you calling to check in on me and me being able to call and pick your brain on car trouble. I hope you're resting easy, tinkering on a car and never have to wait on parts! Till we meet again!

“ Tim you were a great man! what little time we had together I cherished and hold deeply to my thoughts and heart anytime you were around there were laughs and smiles involved jokes where said and a friendship that will fade was made. You will never leave my thoughts and you will never be forgotten to a man that could do it all I thank you deeply for being an amazing friend father figure and an amazing partner to my mother you both changed and adapted to be what you both wanted needed and longed for looking at the two of you hug and be together could show the brightest love in anyone's eyes you were perfect for one another and you will be together in her heart and mind until the end of time I never stopped hearing about that way you made her feel loved and needed and same from you to her you both talked and smiled about each other in a way I've never seen before ps love you dad lol (inside joke) always loved never forgotten these hearts will always carry your memory and smile until we meet again relax and kick your feet up I love you Tim , b rad
