“ Dear Showers Family,
Timmy was very lucky to be a member of such a warm, loving and supportive family. I consider myself lucky to have had the chance to get to know Timmy on his many trips to DC to visit Bones (aka Carole, of course). Timmy is a wonderful example of how we all should live life: enjoying every day, cherishing time spent with family and friends, and always at the ready with a warm smile, a friendly handshake or a big hug. I know you will all miss him terribly, but he will remain in your hearts forever, and in mine as well.
With my deepest sympathy.

“ When I first moved into the neighborhood 26 years ago I met Tim when he walked up and down the street for exercise. He even went up and down the driveways to get that "extra" mileage in, with his head down and a determined pace. If I was working in the front yard he would stop to say hi. We had a little routine where I would greet him as "Hi Handsome!" and he would answer "Hi gorgeous!" and a hug. We even did this in the Schnuck's if we ran into each other there. I miss that.
