“ All I can say is how saddened I am to hear of the passing of my friend and sweet cousin Tina. I will always treasure the memories of what fun and mischief we used get ourselves into (the theatre). All I have are my heartfelt sympathies in words and my heart is so broken to think of the families great loss. She was and will always be loved and remembered fondly. I pray her mama and the girls find the peace and comfort of GOD and with HIM in this time of immense time of sorrow. JESUS loves you and cares for you ALL so much, much love and prayers robin macios and family, i love you ALL!!!
