“ We visited Tracy last October. What a lovely person! She was enthusiastic, intelligent, determined, full of life, making the best of each day. It was an honor to spend time with Tracy and her mom Ellen who was there for her every day. Her brother John helped Tracy each morning and night and her other family members rallied around her. What a beautiful family! Tracy was active in our HealingALS.org online community and a source of inspiration. She will be missed! Thank you to all who donated on behalf of Tracy to help make ALS a reversible disease! --Tish, Scott and the Healing ALS family

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of Tracy's passing. She was such a passionate and energetic personality with a lust for life. I always remember her with a big smile and bright eyes. She loved her family dearly, particularly Ellen her mother. She was devoted to helping others and helped out on many occasions, including church events. I will miss her enthusiasm and friendship.
