“ My Aunt Vera was very close to me; like a 2nd mother. She was with me when my mother, her sister Evelyn Anita Baker Birmingham passed on Aug. 20th, 1992. It was my wish to be at her bedside when she passed. This last week while she was at AMH in ICU, I had the privilege of meeting her paster Bill Veith, her close friends, Shirline Bowers, Arlene Gossling and getting to know my cousin, Linda Kirn on a more personal & closer level. Now, I can see why my Aunt loved these people; because I do also. She will be greatly missed by so many people; including her church at Trinity Luthern in Alton. My Aunt Vera was my confidant, she was always willing to listen to my problems, giving me her loving guidance, and special advice. Not only will I miss her hospitality; but I will miss her greatly during special occasions, & Holidays. Love Forever, Mari

“ Aunt Vera was a wonderful godmother! She never forgot birthdays, even during the past several years when she was battling cancer! She welcomed Dennis and me to the Godfrey home the summer after we married. I last saw her when she traveled to Seattle for Dave & Laura's wedding in summer 2000. I will miss her cards and notes, but I am thankful that she is finally cancer free. May God comfort all her friends and family members with the hope of a joyful reunion in heaven!

“ I will always remember Aunt Vera with fondness-she took me on a train ride to Chicago to ease my sadness when Tracy died. More importantly, she sent me to Vacation Bible School and gave me Ergemaier's Bible Story Book which I read over and over as a child. I credit her with the start of my Christian faith. I look forward to seeing her again in heaven.
