“ You were a very special lady!! I honestly believe that you touched the inner soul of every person that you met. You had so much courage, you fought so many battles, and always with a smile on your face. I am honored that you called me a friend. Wish we would have made the time to get together like we always talked about....that is my biggest regret!! I love you lady, my heart is broken.....🥹🥹💔💔

“ Vicki had something very special — a keen understanding of who she was and an ability to be that courageous, loving, lively, humor filled, authentic and a wise woman of character. I was inspired and made better by her integrity but I weep to think I’ll not be able to see her and my brother Terry sitting on the couch together, laughing and forever telling those wonderful stories of times they had together filled with adventure and love. ❤️ Perhaps the consolation and hope lies in the fact she will always remain a powerful healing spirit in my heart and that my future is better because she changed my life for good.
