I will miss you friend and am thankful I was able to get to know you these last 4 years. RIP..... my sympathy to Carole, Dennis, Pat and all her family!!!!

Thanks Vic for the great memories and laughs. I'll save a bag for you. (Private joke).

“ My Aunt Vicki, Was an Amazing and Courageous Woman! My Little Aunt with a Big Personality. She was my friend who has been there all of my life. She was Brave, Happy and Friendly. She overcame barriers and challenges that we take for granted. Sweet, Caring and Courageous. She was an inspiration to us all, and will be sadly missed.

“ Vickie gave so much of herself and inspired others to do so as well. She was a talented artist who also gave diligently for many, many years to arts organizations throughout the Alton area and beyond. She made such an impact with her life, overcoming so many odds and leaving an indelible mark on the world with her actions and advocacy. Rest in peace, Vickie...

“ Vickie was one of the strongest people I knew. With her determination to complete her education, she was able to achieve her dream of working to help others. Her positive attitude shown through her artwork and creativity which was amazing in spite of her handicap. With her hard work she not only reached her potential, but exceeded it. May God grant you rest, Vickie. Mary Ann Bray
