

Wesley Gene Lohr

March 3, 1938 - April 27, 2024

Wesley Gene Lohr, 86, of Godfrey, died on Saturday, April 27, 2024 at his home surrounded by family. He was born on March 3, 1938 to Clarence (Ted) and Ellen (LaSetta) (Waters) Lohr in the same house in which he died. Mervin (Bud) Lohr was Wes's brother who preceded him in death. Wes attended Godfrey Grade School and graduated from Alton High School.

Wes then joined the United States Air Force and served in Greece and Turkey from 1956-1959.

He was called home to help run the family business, C.M. Lohr Quarry, with his brother after his father's fatal accident. He married the former Karen Jeane Sileven on February 20, 1965 at St. Ambrose Catholic Church in Godfrey. Karen preceded him in death in 2018.

Surviving are two children: Terry (Shelly) Lohr and Renee (Rob) Brown, and five grandchildren: Michael, Matthew, Mark, and Noah Brown, and Kari Lohr. Also surviving are sisters-in-law Alice Lohr, Marilyn Sileven, Teresa Tripp and brother-in-law Bob Tripp.

He was extremely proud of his grandkids and would listen to each and every story intently. Or maybe that is because he couldn't get a word in. Also surviving are nieces, nephews and hundreds of cousins from across the country.

While running the family quarry, Wes oversaw day to day operations and performed such tasks as electrician, diesel mechanic, rock driller, and explosives handler. He also worked with federal and state inspectors for mining, air, water, explosive and dirt permitting. He grew up in the business, so he was a natural. The quarry further developed and expanded until it was eventually sold in 2003 and Wes retired.

Wes designed and built a house in Brighton, IL, where he and Karen raised their family. He was very involved in the community, especially at St. Alphonsus Catholic Church. They moved to Godfrey in 1988, and he moved back into his childhood home in 2003. He took care of his beloved wife, who lived with multiple sclerosis, for 40 years. They could be seen eating at every restaurant in Godfrey and Alton. They loved to socialize and found every opportunity to see their friends and family.

As a self proclaimed family genealogist and local historian, Wes spent his days researching the Lohr /Waters family trees. He reached out to cousins from coast to coast and stayed connected through email and Christmas cards. His knowledge of the Riverbend area was astounding. He could tell stories ranging anywhere between the Alton Mill fire and the building of Humbert Road, to remembering the Godfrey "Plank" road and the platform dances up at Pop Waters farm. If there was ever a question about the history of Godfrey or Alton, he knew the answer. Through Wes's learning and connections, he eventually started and organized the Godfrey Grade School reunions. These reunions went on for years and brought many old friends together again.

Faith was a very important part of Wes's life. He was a devout Roman Catholic and was a member of the Dominican Laity in St. Louis. Wes and Karen belonged to Ss. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Alton. In the past, he served as an usher and eucharistic minister. He was also a lifetime member of the Godfrey Knights of Columbus. Wes never missed a Sunday Mass or a Lenten fish fry.

Wes had a love for classic cars. He ordered and bought the first convertible 1964½ Mustang in Alton. He also bought a 1957 T Bird and it is still in his possession. He was restoring a 1966 El Camino from the ground up when he wasn't helping others (his children) remodel bathrooms or build sheds. He was quite the handyman as well and would never pass up the opportunity to help.

From his weekly gatherings at Joe K's and the Round Table, he truly touched the lives of so many people. He was a devoted husband, a caring father, and a supportive grandfather and will be missed by all.

“ I knew Wes as a committed member of the Dominican Laity when I was living in St. Louis from 2008-2019. He was always pleasant and present and often brought his wife to the meetings. For several years I was the priest liaison with the Dominican Laity, a very active group. I am sure he was missed when no longer able to come.

“ There are many positive attributes in the English language, and any and all can be used for Wes. The two most prominent to me are concern and community. His love of family, past, present and future, was evident in his actions and words. In his conversation and activities you saw this expanded to so many of his relationships. He loved to both reach out and draw others in. All of this reflected his innate giving and sharing nature which has moved so many who knew him. His unassuming presence and availability to others is a model for us all.

“ I live in Chattanooga but grew up in Godfrey and used to mow his mom's lawn on Pearl Street in the 1970s for about 5 years before I went to college in 1980. I probably ran into Gene a dozen times in the last 10 years, typically at Joe K's. My mom and he went to high school together. What an incredibly kind man with such a pleasant demeanor. While I didn't know him real well, I could tell that he truly lived out his faith in the way he loved his wife and took care of her with her MS. God's blessings to the rest of the family.

“ Gene was my cousin. He and Karen visited us in Virginia a few times, and after Karen passed, he came alone. He brought me a board from my grandfather’s barn, which was special, as it had my dad’s name carved in it. Gene had many stories to tell, all interesting. I will miss him! May he rest in eternal peace 💜🕊️🙏
