“ I have many fond memories of Uncle Bill. My favorite is his voice! I love listening to him at Christmas singing carols, he had the most beautiful voice! And I thought he was a very loving father! I was blessed to know him. I had no idea of his passing and I am so sorry!!

“ As a fellow classmate, I definitely remember classroom antics but my favorite memory of Bill was watching him and his sister dance. They were amazing!

“ After all these years I can still close my eyes and hear his infectious laugh and see that mischievous look . He was always upbeat and positive waiting for a transplant. I saw him following it and he was very humble and blessed to get a new lease on life. His family and friends are greatfull to have the God given extra time with him
