“ I miss Grandma very much. I miss being able to talk to her about anything & everything I needed to. She was always there for emotional support and gave much Love. I enjoyed listening to her life stories, hearing her honest advice & opinions. Her way with words always made me laugh and cheered me up. I will always reminisce about staying the night on Saturday nights, staying the weekend when I worked my first nursing job, listening to country & gospel music, taking our trips through Calhoun County & spending Christmas eve at her house. I could go on & on with memories. But, she was my best friend.

“ Grandma was very loving and affectionate. I enjoyed her blunt opinions and honest advise. She always made me laugh. Memories of her will no doubt bring laughter for many years to come. All of my thoughts, love, and prayers go to my family, whom I look forward to celebrating Grandma's future in Heaven with. She is in Heaven with our Holy Father and certainly worshiping her love Jesus. Back to being new.
